Camp - Mysore, [illegible] 1921.

Dear Sir,

I forward herewith for favour of sanction a Travelling Allowance Bill for the Journey made from Trivandrum to Bangalore during March 1921 wher I was recalled from leave to take charge of the - Industries and Commerce Department. I received your D.O. letter informing me of the decision of Government at Trivandrum on or about the 16th March 1921 and thereupon I had to change my holiday programme and make arrangements to be in Bangalore in time to rejoin on 1st April 1921. I received the formal orders on my way at Ernakulam. During my leave I had gone on a tour by road in my motor car and on recall I had no course but to travel part of the way by motor and to transport it by rail from Ernakulam. I might add that the journey has actually cost
